RAILROAD extensions will require a million tons of rails during 1890, leading Pittsburg manufacturers assert. They will have busy times and good times, because that means the expenditure of nearly $100,000,000, of which 70 to 80 per cent. will be for labor.

The richest man in Germany, according to recent published statistics, is Herr Krupp of Essen, whose income for the current year amounts to $276,000. Clearly his business has been flourishing in the past year, for a twelve-month ago his revenue was officially estimated at only $210,000.

A new illustration of our proverb was afforded by an Augusta, Me., man, recently. He was at work on the ice and proudly remarked: "I've worked 22 years, on this ice, and have never been in the drink yet." As he said this he straightened himself up a little more, threw his head back, his feet flew out under him, and away he went into the canal.

OVER 55 years ago Prudence Crandall was violently persecuted for starting a boarding school for colored girls at Canterbury, Conn., but not till the state legislature had prohibited her school and she had been tried, convicted and imprisoned for breaking the law did she give up her project. WHILE C. W. Bliss, a well-known politician, at Hillsboro, Ill., was conversing on the street, a bee stung him on the finger of his left hand. The poison went to his heart, and in a few seconds his condition was so serious as to create considerable alarm and require medical attendance. He was conveyed to a drug store where a stinging antitoxin was administered. In an incredibly short time the poison, after leaving the throat, settled in the left eye, and a swelling took place which nearly destroyed that optic.

That was a sensible gentleman who died in Philadelphia recently, leaving an estate worth $250,000. His will contained an unusual provision. It directed that an obelisk should be erected over his grave, which, beside the usual mortuary inscription, should have, on the north panel: "Traveled 60,000 miles in America, Europe, Asia, and Africa." The south panel is to read: "Young man, stop and think. See what has been the reward for honesty, industry and economy. In 1840 I worked on Robert Martin's farm, near Jersey shore, for 25 cents a day. No fun time left to me." The west panel will say: "Lived and died in the faith of the immutable and unchangeable and Nature's God. Believed in the Gospel of Peace, Right, and Justice."

WHILE C. W. Bliss, a well-known politician, at Hillsboro, Ill., was conversing on the street, a few stung him on the finger of his left hand. The poison went to his heart, and in a few seconds his condition was so serious as to create considerable alarm and require medical attendance. He was conveyed to a drug store where a stinging antiseptic was administered. In an incredibly short time the poison, after leaving the heart, settled in the left eye, and a swelling took place which nearly destroyed that optic.

THAT was a sensible gentleman who died in Philadelphia recently, leaving an estate worth $250,000. His will contained an unusual provision. It directed that an obelisk should be erected over his grave, which, beside the usual mortuary inscription, should have, on the north panel: "Traveled 60,000 miles in America, Europe, Asia, and Africa." The south panel is to read: "Young man, stop and think. See what has been the reward for honesty, industry, and economy. In 1840 I worked on Robert Martin's farm, near Jersey shore, for 25 cents a day. No fortune left to me." The west panel will say: "Lived and died in the faith of the immutable and unchangeable and Nature's God. Believed in the Gospel of Peace, Right, and Justice."

THE EXPRESS ROBBERY.

Searles and Paine Arrive and are Admitted to Bail in the Sum of $5000 Each.

The return of Wm. Paine, jr. and Charles Searles on Wednesday, and matters connected with the Northern Pacific express robbery, has been a nine days' wonder in Brainerd, and Madame Rumor has had her hands full during the past week. Long before the train pulled into the depot on Wednesday noon, the platform was filled with spectators and curious and inquisitive people who had assembled to witness the arrival of the Brainerd boys who were charged with having stolen the bag of gold from the N. P. Express Co. which contained $15,000,—in fact, as Sheriff Spalding expressed it, "You would have thought Barnum had arrived with his white elephant." But the sheriff fooled them for the train slowed up at the Fourth street crossing and in company with Deputy Alderman the four alighted and were quietly housed at the sheriff's residence in a very few minutes.

After partaking of a good square meal, such as Landlord Spalding is noted for, Messrs. Paine and Searles appeared at the municipal court where a plea of "not guilty" was entered, and the examination was adjourned until Saturday morning, had being furnished in each case in the sum of $5000, the bond being signed by Wm. Paine, Sr. and A. V. Snyder, in the first case, and by S. W. Searles and Geo. F. Burton, in the second, and the boys were at liberty for the first time in ten days.

Most people would expect to see traces of agitation in the appearance of young men charged with so great an offense, and which, would, if proven, mean to each a long term of years in the penitentiary, but not the slightest degree of uneasiness could be detected more than would be occasioned by weariness from the long journey from Missoula here. Both young men proclaimed their innocence, and assert that their trial will prove to the people of this city, and for that matter to the world, for the report of their arrest has been heralded abroad in every paper in the land, that they are in total ignorance of anything connected with the robbery, and we doubt if there are a half dozen people in Brainerd but who hope that such will be the case, and while there are people who believe there will not be evidence enough to bind them over to the grand jury which meets in September, it is altogether probable that they will be held. Sheriff Spalding says the boys were really glad to see him when he got there, and would have come without the formality of requisition papers, and that their behavior on the return trip was that of any ordinary passenger. At Helena where a bevy of reporters boarded the train to get a glimpse of the accused, they were very much surprised not to find them in irons and locked to the seats. Charles Searles had bought his ticket and was taking the train for this city when he was arrested, and Jake Paine who was at the train to see him off was pointed out to the sheriff as the other party wanted, and he was taken along and placed in the jail, and remained there twenty-three hours before he was liberated. Wm. Paine was out on his claim 27 miles distant at the time the arrests were made, and a neighbor who was in town at the time and who was going out to night informed him of what had transpired, and it was eight or ten hours before the officer came to place him under arrest, which would seem that he had no desire to escape. The boys seem to be in the best of spirits but speak disparagingly of the grub a person gets who is so unfortunate as to get into a Montana cooler.

Jake Paine accompanied the party on the return trip, and will probably not return. Brainerd is good enough for him.

A Sad Case.

Mrs. Thos. Johnson was adjudged insane and taken to St. Peter on Tuesday. The case is a peculiarly sad one, the cause of the lady's insanity being the loss of three children who died from diphtheria during the early part of winter. The fourth and last child, being the last to take it, and upon his recovery his eyes began to trouble him, and some three or four weeks ago he went totally blind. This was too much for the already grief-stricken mother to stand and her mind gradually gave way under the heavy load of sorrow. It is quite probable that a surgical operation could be performed which would restore to a degree, if not entirely, the sight of the boy, and it would be a charitable act indeed, if some person would start a subscription paper and raise a fund to defray the expense of the doctor's bill, as the father is a poor man and unable to pay for it.

Killed in A Stairway.

On Wednesday evening the body of Martin Hanson was found lying at the foot of the cellar stairs in the basement of the block on the corner of Fifth and Laurel streets, known as the No. 1 saloon. The man had been dead some time as the body was cold. At the time no one seemed to know who the dead man was, but Fred Zottman, who runs a restaurant in the building, identified the remains as those of Mr. Hanson, he having been boarding with Mr. Zottman for about a week. Coroner Cross was immediately called and the remains were removed to Loney & Dean's undertaking establishment, where an inquest was held yesterday afternoon. Hanson had been working in the woods all winter, and was waiting in Brainerd for his money to arrive from Minneapolis, the amount being $86, before he left for Hixson, Dakota, where he labored during the summer months. The money arrived at the Northern Pacific Bank the same afternoon that Hanson met with his untimely death. The man was about town as usual during the forenoon, but he disappeared after dinner and was never seen alive again. He was somewhat under the influence of liquor, and it is supposed that in going from the restaurant to the saloon he stumbled and fell down the stairs which lead from the hallway, and which are unprotected even by a door. He struck on his head, and was in all probability killed instantly. The coroner's jury returned a verdict in accordance with the above facts. The burial will occur this afternoon.
